

Benefits to Animals

Written by

Thursday, 25 April 2013 06:33 - Last Updated Thursday, 25 April 2013 06:36

Benefits to animals

- Highly palatable and nutritious
- Reduces feeding costs
- Improves general fertility, conception rates and reproductive capacity
- Improves appearance of coat or fleece
- Increases stocking capacity
- Increases digestibility of nutrients
- Improves general animal health and disease resistance – a healthier animal requires less veterinary care
- Increases newborn survival rate
- Maximum performance is achieved on less protein due to better assimilation and digestibility of daily feed
-